(1998). Communities of practice: Learning ... A community of practice is different from a team in that the shared learning and interest of its members are what keep it together. It is defined by knowledge rather than by task, and it exists because participation has value to its members. It does not appear the minute a project is started and does not disappear with the end of a task. The Systems Thinker - Communities of Practice: Learning as ... A community of practice is a group of people who "share a concern or a passion for something they do and learn how to do it better as they interact regularly". The concept was first proposed by cognitive anthropologist Jean Lave and educational theorist Etienne

Learning. Wenger then significantly expanded on the concept in his 1998 book Communities of Practice.
