... When Megadeth unleashed their first LP, Killing Is My Business ... and Business Is Good!, on June 12, 1985, they were the last of thrash metal's Big Four — the platinum-selling pace-setters, completed by Metallica, Slayer, and Anthrax — to debut. How Dave Mustaine Thrashed Metallica with Megadeth's Debut Killing Is My Business... And Business Is Good was released with little fanfare on June 12, 1985. Two weeks later, Megadeth set off on their first US tour... minus Chris Poland, who was struggling with his addictions. As pissed off as Mustaine was with his fellow guitarist, he was elated that his band were finally on their way... Megadeth: the story of Killing Is My Business... And ... Another highlight found on Killing is My Business is the title track. An energetic piece from the band, every important aspect to be found in a Megadeth track can be heard here. Though shorter than Mechanix, it too has an excellent, anthemic chorus. But the real story here is definitely the relentless guitar assault from Dave and Chris. Megadeth - Killing Is My Business... and Business Is Good
